A vineyard situated near the famous classified growths of La Lagune and Cantemerle, Gironville has begun making some positive noises. The 2006, one of the finest wines they have produced over recent years, is an elegant, classic Bordeaux offering sweet red and black currant notes intermixed with hints of new saddle leather, spice box, and roasted herbs. Possessing a round, savory mid-palate, ripe tannin, and a plush finish, it should drink well for 4-5 years. Good value.
